

It is nice to be able to listen to the radio with out the liberal BS. I think you would be truly unfair if the FCC or the legislators decided to ban a radio station that I and paying money for to be relatively commercial free. This is interesting because free enterprise made America and the liberal radio media is trying to stop the new kid on the block. If you have any questions please feel free to e-mail me at your earliest convenience.

Kent Olson